DETAILED ACTION

1. This is in response to the applicant's amendment received on 08/13/07 in which claims 10, 27, 44, were cancelled and claims 56-74 were added.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Scott W. Kelley on 10/11/07. A voice mail was left in his mailbox indicating the change of claim 51 below.

The application has been amended as follows:

IN THE CLAIMS:

- a) Claim 51 line 1, "51" has been changed to --50--.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

3. After further search and thorough examination of the present application and in view of the Applicant's arguments and amendments, claims 1-9, 11-26, 28-43, and 45-74 are found to be in condition for allowance over the prior art made of record.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Applicant teaches a communication circuit carried by said strap, said communication circuit including a pair of electronic coupling elements disposed generally at said strap head and tail ends; wherein one of said coupling elements has a predetermined area, and wherein the other of said coupling elements has a length greater than the length of said one coupling element. This configuration is to create a structure whereby the coupling elements are almost assuredly overlapping to ensure a secure electrical connection, to create a predetermined capacitance and resonance frequency, which are critical to readers with which an identification band can communicate (see page 17, paragraph 2 of the response). These limitations in conjunction with other limitations of the dependent and independent claims were not shown by, would not have been obvious over, nor would have been fairly suggested by the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
